General

INDEX

TO THE

TENTH VOLUME,

NEW SERIES,

OF THE

SOUTHERN QUARTERLY REVIEW.

A.

Abrege des voyage of La Harpe, 70; Account of Africa 70; Abyssinia, Life in, by Parkyns, 513; Addison works, 524; Africa and the American Flag, 530; Africans at Home, their savage barbarity, the same from critical notices, 71; their own belief in the superiority of the white man, 73; their Fetiches, 75; fond of bloodshed, 79; proportion of slaves, 83; number of wives, 88; make their pavements of human skulls, 93; Fetiche Tree, 93; Tricks of the Priest, 93; Allegiance, what, and to whom due, 401, 402; Allston, on sea coast crops, 271; American Society, Essays on, 355; Amazon, the, Exploration by Lieut. Herndon, notice of, 243; Apheila, and other poems, 530; Apulecus, Works of, 235; Arabs, History of, in Spain, by Foster, 513; Armenia, by Curzon, 534; Atherton, lately Mary Mitford, 536; Attic Philosopher, in Paris, 255; Atmosphere, Lecture on by Puryear, 255

B.

Barter, Essay on formation and publication of opinions on, 526; Banks, minority report on, Virginia, 260; Banks and Banking, objections to present system, plan for new one, 220; Barclays, of Boston, 253; Bartlett, boundary commissioner, 518; Beecham, John, his account of Africa, 87; Bellinger, Mr., Law School in Columbia, 259; Bernhardy Von G., outlines of Grecian Literature, 145; Bentham, Jeremy, opinions as to equality of mankind, 385; Black Sea, Russian Shores of, 261; Blackwood, Magazine, 523; Boston Orators, 529; Bohn's Libraries, 523; Blake, Lemuel, Constitutional Textbook, as expounded by Danl. Webster, 522; Boys, Book for, 257; Bremer, Miss, Homes of the new world, 355; Brice, James, Classic and Historic portraits, 252; Brown, Aaron V., his Address, 528; Brumby, Professor, Essay on Agricultural Chemistry, 272; Burke, Life of, and notice of, 244; Burnaps Democracy in America, 525; Butler's Analogy, Review of, 205; Account of Butler, 205

C.

Cæsar Augustus, compared with Louis Napoleon I, character of, 2; Calavar, by Bird, notice of, 533; Campbell, Poems, notice of, 270; Carew, Sir Jasper, by Lever, notice of, 527; Carey, notice of poems, 245; Charleston College, Magazine, notice of, 272; Chemistry of common life by Johnson, 257; Chesneys, Russo-Turkish Campaign, 512; Church, history of, 251; Cicero, writings of, Bohn's edition, 244; Classics, necessity of understanding the, 145; Coast Survey, observations on, 239; Confederacy, What, 403; United States Government, a confederacy, 403; Alexander Hamilton's opinion, 404, 420; Convention, no nearer the people than the Legislature, 424; can only be called by the legislature, 418; Contrat-Social, of Rousseau and fallacies, 385; Cotton, its culture in India decreasing, 241; Corinne, notice of, 252; Coast Survey, observations on, 239; Courts, cannot decide political questions, speaks under the law and cannot make it, 431; Cousin, Lectures on the true, beautiful and good, 517; Cowper's works by Southey, notice of, 535; Cromwell, Oliver, by Guizot, 269

D.

Democracy, much corrupted by foreign additions to our population, 435; DeQuincey's, Philosophical writer, and other men of letters, character of, 243; Dietetics of the soul, 525; Divorce, See marriage and divorce, 332; Dorr, his case, 430; Dumas, Forrester's notice of, 258

E.

Electors of President and Vice President to be appointed not elected by the States, 416; Elements, the States constitute the elements of which the Union is composed and legal voters constitute the elements of the State governments; Negro's constitute no element, 348, 415, 428; Eternal, dispute as to the word, 521; European, Reviews, 256

F.

Fetiches, of the Africans, 75; Fields, James, Poems of, 236; Footprints of famous men, 524; Forsyth, William, Napoleon at St. Helena, 97; French Protestants, History of the Refugees by Charles Weiss, 233; Forrest, William, Sketches of Norfolk and Portsmouth, Virginia, 249; Frost, John, Heroic women of the west, 253; Florida, East, her lands and agricultural productions, 304; Farmer's manual, 304

G.

Gibbon's Rome, Edition by Bohn, 254; Gervinus, Professor at Heidelburg, mistake as to American institutions, 393; German Literature, Handbook of, 257; Gliddon, George R., Types of mankind, 274; Government, constitutes sovereignty, 383; of the U. S. formed by the government of the States and represents the States and not a people, 411; Mr. Walker's Tract on, 121; Mr. Walker defended against Mr. Rhett, 122; Issues between them, 122; Doctrine of the general welfare discussed, 123; no remedy for construction but amendment of the Constitution, 131; Constitution gives the power, 136; not remitted to enumerated powers, 137; government, partly federal, partly national, 137; Constitution not ratified by the governments of the States, but by the people, 138; two or more peoples cannot be united for specific purposes, without becoming as to those purposes one people, 139; legislatures had not the power to ratify, 143; legislatures have no power to grant powers to the people, 144; Political philosophy of, 37; Natural state of man, 38; must be different for different people, 64; General Government. See Government and Political Elements, 383; Opinions as to sovereignty of the people, 392, 407; Grace Greenwood—Haps and mishaps. Slight and fall of superlatives, and sometimes ludicrous raptures, 242; Guizot—his Cromwell, 269

H.

Harper's Magazine. Inimical to the South, 503; false in their professions, 503; abusive terms of the South, 509; Hentz, Mrs., Planter's Northern Bride, 255; Gazetteer of the World, 534; Higher Law. Derived from the doctrine of the sovereignty of the people, 413; same as Lynch law, ib. Hosmer's Poems, notice of, 265. Hugenots, see history of French refugees, 223; Human race, unity denied and duenity contended for, 274. Hunter, Mr., speech of, 260.

I.

Ingulph's Chronicles of Croyland Abbey, 515; India, Caffer's account of, 241; their cotton decreasing, 241; Iron Corsair, by Mary Clarke, 528.

J.

Johnson, Chem. of Common Life, 257

K.

Keith, Mr., Speech of, 261; Keps, Catacombs of Rome, 536; Kennedy, Mr., his Rob of the Bowl, 269; Knout and the Russians, by Laguay, 535.

L.

Law School, by Mr. Bellinger, Columbia, S. C., 259; Legislature of the States. May do whatever is necessary for welfare or safety of the States, 411; Les Savanes, par Adrien Roquette de la Louisiane, 167; Lewes, G. K., exposition of Comte's Philosophic Position, 240; London, sauntering about, by Schlesaiger, 254; Lockwood, Scenery, 259; Lowe, Sir Hudson, conduct of at St. Helena, 97; Luther, life of, 250.

M.

M'Dougall, J. C., speech, 532; Moseley, Joseph, political elements, 383; Maritime Conference, held at Brussells. Part of Lt. Maury in it, 240. Martineau, Miss, retrospect of western travel, 355; Marriage and Divorce discussed, 332; Masantes, Senor don Augustin, Farmer's Manual or Compendium of East Florida, 304; Maurice, Theological Essay, 256; Mowatt, Mrs., Autobiography, 251; Maury, Lieut., private worth and public usefulness, 240; sailing directions, 257; Merivale, Romans under the empire, 1; history tedious and unsatisfactory—an incompetent man, 2; Mechanic Arts, influence of, 524; Meek, report on Education, 262; Moore, Thomas, notes from letters to Powers, 520; Menciuach, or life at the Loom, 257; Melbourne, Islands, 264; Mudia, feathered tribes of Balisle Island, 519; Mormons, and Utah, 525; Moore, memoirs of, by Lord John Russell, 254; Message and documents of prest. U. S, 528; Military Academies of South Carolina, account of, 191.

N.

Napoleon Bonaparte, treatment by Sir Hudson Lowe. Forsyth's account of him at St. Helena reviewed; his treatment, 97; imprisonment necessary, but in many circumstances, treatment impolitic, cruel and bitter, 104; Napoleon, Louis, and Augustus Cæsar: their fortunes and conduct compared, p. 1; acts the same; 6, each had his uncle; 5 and 6, their antecedents; 11, character of Augustus; 11, character of Louis, 27. Necessity, basis of all law, 394–413. Navy, improvement of, speech of Mr. Malloy, 528. Negro, different race from white man, 273. Newton, Hon. W., address of, 268. New Novels, 527. Norfolk, sketches of, 249. Nott, Dr. Josiah C., Types of Mankind, 274. Norton, Mrs., Sorrows of Rosalie, 550.

O.

Orator's touchstone, 516; Orr, Mr., report on the Indians, 517; Otei, Harrison Grey, notice of his Barclay's of Boston, 253.

P.

Periodicals, Northern against the South, 503; Partington, Mrs., Carpet Bag of Fun, 262; Passion Flowers, 180; Petrarch's Laura; real person, 459; birth place, 464; her character considered, 467. Petersburg, Library association, 271; Philippines, forty years in, 518; Philosophy, positive of Comte, 240; Planter's Northern Bride, by Mrs. Hentz, 255; Poetry of Science, by Hunt. 574; Polygamy, to what extent allowed in Africa, 88. Political Elements: the government sovereign and not the people, 383; Rousseau first suggested the idea of sovereignty of the people, 385; the supreme power is the sovereign, 384; lynch law and the higher law, faults of the doctrine of the sovereignty of the people, ib.; all men not equal, 385; general government by the State governments, and is a confederacy, and not a consolidated government, 397, 43; allegiance what and to whom due, 401, 402; miserable theories of Rosseau, 385; control social, 383; Jeremy Bantham's opinion, 385; Mr. Guizot's, 392, 407; mistake of Gervinus, 393; power is derived from the people, but sovereignty is in government, 384; representatives, officers not servants, 401; servants should be in livery, 401; powers of State and general government, 401; confederacy what, 403; Alexander Hamilton's opinion, 404-420; Federalist, 420; Judge Tucker's mistakes, 405; we the people, means the States, 404; sovereignty of the State above the sovereignty of the people, 406; danger of majority principle, 407; Legislature may do whatever is for the welfare and safety of the State, 411; general government established by the governments of the States, and represents the States and not a people, 411; the people and State the same, 411; Convention in England and here different, 413; Convention no more the people than the legislature, 424; must always be called by the legislature, 413; union does not mean consolidation, 421; Marshall's opinion, 424–429; Rhode Island case, 420; courts cannot decide as to political powers, but only cases under the law, quo diare, non facere, 431; States elements of the Union, and voters elements of the State, 428. Political Philosophy of South Carolina: civil society, what? 37-471; what is the state of nature? 38; civilization as natural as the savage state, 38; whatever is natural may be said to be a state of nature—society natural to man, and when born in society, may be said to be born in a state of nature, 39; power of government necessary to existence of society, 39; man cannot be left to his self-government, 40; Origin and use of government, 40; must be progressive, 40; national liberty, what? 41; what liberty consistent with society, 41; liberty must be earned, 42; depends on the people, 43; civil liberty, what? 44-45-48; natural inequality, 49; admitted by Jefferson, notwithstanding his Declaration of Independence, 49; governments must be different for different people, 64; schools of politics, 474; Aristotle's, 476; Hobbe's idea of social compact, 480; the people and State, the same, 490; sovereignty, what? 499; its divisibility, 502. Pope, poetical works of, 249. Porter, Hon. W. D., oration of 271. Portsmouth, sketches of, 249. Putnam's New Monthly: Inimical to the South, 503; free soil, 505; abuse of the South, 509; self-respect not to take it, 510.

Q.

QUEENS OF ENGLAND, romantic incidents, 261.

R.

REPORT of the Secretary of the Treasury for 1853, valuable for historical matter, and statement relative to the fisheries—historical facts collected by Mr. Sabine, authority not the best, 239; Raube's account of Servia, 253; Representatives, officers or trustees, not servants, 401; Representative Government, essentially responsible, 409; Does not admit the doctrine of the majority, but is governed by the constitution and laws, 409; Rhode Island, case of Dorr; no convention to alter constitution can be held in a State without the consent of the State government, 430; no change can be constitutionally made in a State government without the consent of the government, 430; political question, and not one for the courts, 430; Report on Schools, 527; Rob of the Bowl, by Kennedy, 269; Rousseau, absurd and mischievous theories, 385; Russia as it is, by Gurowski, 268.

S.

SABINE, LORENZO, his prejudices and local bigotry, 239; Savanie, physiology of taste, 251; Schlescugio, saunterings about London, 254; Selborne, natural history of, 256; Semlam, poems by, 522; Servia, by Raube, 253; Smith's History of Greece, 526; Shelford, Leonard, treatise on marriage and divorce, 332; Shelton's Crystalline, 524; Slaves, proportion to the free in Africa, 83; Slave Trade, kept open by constitution till 1808, by express contract, for a consideration, between North and South, 415; Socrates, Scholasticus, comprising history of the Church, 251; South, prospects and policy, 431; Why difference in progress North and South, 435; Her existence depends on slavery, 436; Her produce the great element of foreign commerce, 436; Sovereignty, what constitutes it, 383, 406, 411; Strickland, Queens of Scotland, &c., 519; Student of art in Munich, 264; Sumner, Charles, with Wendell Philips, Theo. Parker, &c., constables under higher law, or Lynch law, 413.

T.

TASTE, PHYSIOLOGY OF, 251; Temperance Convention, World's, 530; Thomas, Caroline, Farmingdale, 525; Thorpe, Hive of the Bee Hunter, 525; Tranchere, narrative, 529; Trollope, Mrs., domestic manners of the Americans, 355; Turks, year with, 263; Types of Mankind, by Nott and Gliddon, notice of, 270.

U.

UNITY OF THE HUMAN RACE contested, 273; Opinions of various writers, 275.

V.

VIRGINIA, NOTES ON, by Jefferson, new edition, notice of, 242; Vathek, by Beckford, 252.

W.

WALKER, Mr., his tract on government and peculiar opinions, 122 to 139; Ward, Matthew F., trial of, 520; Washington, H. A., Virginia constitution, 524; Wiess, Charles, history of French refugees, 233; We the people, meaning of, in U. S. constitution, 404; White's historical collection of Georgia, 272; Wilkinson, Sir S. Gardner, ancient Egyptians, 535; Willis' Home Journal, 355; Women, heroic, of the West, 253; Working man's way in the World, notice of, 248.

Y.

YOUNG VOYAGEURS, attractive to youth, 243.